

Breathe In, Breathe Out

[Announcer] This program is presented by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Welcome to this podcast series on diabetes, brought to you by the Division of Diabetes Translation from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Studies have shown that people at high risk for diabetes who lose weight and increase their physical activity can prevent or delay diabetes and even return their blood glucose levels to normal.

So...breathe in, breathe out. Keep it movin'. Play sports, shoot some hoops, get out, have fun. Being physically active can help prevent type 2 diabetes. Come on and join us in moving to the music.

This podcast features Breathe In, Breathe Out – taken from Step by Step music CD/DVD an initiative promoting increased physical activity from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Whoo! Let's go, BJ - You did it again, baby!

Breathe In. Breathe Out.

Breathe In. Three kings for duckie, baby! Breathe Out. BJ!

Breathe In. Breathe Out. Uno!

Breathe In. Sixty-five, here we go! Breathe Out.

Breathe In. Breathe in, y'all. Breathe Out.

Breathe In. Let's live. Breathe Out. Let's go, Uno!

So feel good, stay healthy, live my life.

Keep a strong mind and body for the rest of my life.

Breathe In. Breathe out. Ease the Tension.

Stay physically fit – disease prevention.

My aim is to live long, eat right, and sleep nights and think strong.

Insight- my body's like a temple so I'm sippin' water.

Stay focused, see my doctor – live a little longer. Let's go, let's go!

Eat the right food, lead my life true.

Read a little, eat a little, keep it right. Let's live, live!

Everything in moderation-watch what you do.
Breathe in. Oxygen's cool. Come on, come on!
Keep things movin'. Prevent disease.
Keep improvin'.
